Convenient Credit Card Repayment Options

CASH

Deposit cash at any of your bank's branches. Such payments at branches would attract a fee. Please refer to your bank's schedule of charges.

CHEQUE/DRAFT

Write a cheque or create a DD in favour of your credit card no. xxxx xxxx xxxx xxxx and drop it into the collection box at any of your bank's branches / ATM drop boxes. Make sure that all the details in the cheque are correct and complete.

INTERNET

If you hold a savings account with the card-issuing bank, you can make payment online through your bank's website.

You can make payment from your savings account of any other bank using the payment facility available at your bank's website.

You can also make payment through facilities like NEFT* (National Electronic Fund Transfer) or through VISA Money Transfer.

AUTO DEBIT

If you hold a savings bank account with the bank, you may make payment directly through the savings account by giving a written instruction to debit the payment to the savings account every month on the payment due date. You have the flexibility of choosing between two convenient payment options: Total Amount Due and Minimum Amount Due.

*Check with your bank if they have these facilities.

TIP OF THE DAY

Pay the total amount due on your credit card by the due date and prevent the levy of interest charges.
