

You can also Top-Up the balance on your Delhi Metro Transit chip using the following options:

Recharge at Ticket window:

The Delhi Metro Transit chip balance on the ICICI Bank Unifare Credit Card can be recharged at the ticket windows at Delhi Metro stations.

Recharge through Ticket Vending Machines:

You can also use Ticket Vending Machines at Delhi Metro stations to recharge your Delhi Metro Transit chip balance. The machine accepts currency notes and simultaneously recharges the balance on your Delhi Metro Transit chip.

Recharge Online:

You can recharge your Delhi Metro Transit chip online through www.dmrsmartcard.com using the Quick top up button available on the homepage. Alternatively, you can create an account using your Engraved ID (EID) number (printed on the back of your card) and Email ID and use the Recharge your card option available after logging into your account.

After completion of online payment, please visit any Add Value Machine (AVM) installed at select Metro stations*. Place the ICICI Bank Unifare Credit Card at the designated space on the AVM to complete the recharge process.

If you do not present your card at an AVM for 30 days from the date of such recharge, the recharge amount will be credited to your Credit Card after deduction of 2.5% of the recharge amount as surcharge.
